Pastor Danny and Jenny's Daily Updates

Tuesday March 2, 2010

I hope you have had a wonderful day today.

One ingredient to a day makes it a part of eternity.

When we spend time with the Lord in prayer on a day, it can never be a "waisted" day.

We tap into the eternal realm. Things change in the unseen realm. We are taking our place of authority in the earth.

How the enemy tries to distract us from this great ministry of prayer. Its a battle sometimes to stay on our post as a watchmen for the souls of men, for our nation, and for those we love. We are willing to "pay the price"

Rev 3:18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich;

Time spent with the Lord is our investment in heaven's gold. Our lives are enriched. The purpose for which we were made did not slip through our fingers. We spent time with Jesus.
